Ping-Hui Hsu is Professor in the Department of Business Administration at De Lin Institute of Technology in Taiwan. He received a PhD in Industrial Engineering from Chung Yuan Christian University in Taiwan; received a master degree in Mathematics from National Taiwan Normal University in Taiwan; received a bachelor degree in Mathematics from National Central University in Taiwan. His research interests are in the fields of production/inventory control, optimization, operation research and supply chain management.

I want my name to appear on the Journal website: (Ping-Hui Hsu). I plan to handle the submission of this Journal with care reviewing to be high quality.

Publication (2006-present)

1. Journal paper

2. Conference Papers

Ping-Hui Hsu, Hui-Ming Teng and Hui Ming Wee 2012, July 15-18, Revisiting An Economic Order Quantity (EOQ) for Items with Imperfect Quality and Inspection Errors, Proceedings of International Conference on Innovation and Management, Republic of Palau.

